NRC will be compiled in Haryana too: Khattar

Chief Minister Manohar Lal Khattar on Sunday said, “National Register of Citizens will be compiled in Haryana too.”

The party said Mr. Shah’s statement was contrary to the spirit of the Constitution and our country’s linguistic diversity.

CPI(M) strongly opposes Shah’s assertion that Hindi, as the most spoken language, could work to unite the nation—one nation, one culture, one language” would never be a reality. “We may have one nation—one tax, but one nation—one language will never be a reality. “We may have one nation—one tax, but one nation—one language will never be a reality.”

Corporation to shift over 27,000 street vendors to new zones

Residents welcomed the move

As many as 27,250 street vendors will be removed from roads, where they have their shops spread out, and will be viewed in new zones in a few days.

Most of the 15 town-vending committees, reviewed by Chennai Corporation executives in a recent meeting, are expected to list the vending zones in their respective regions. The Corporation said it was waiting for a report from an NGO and civic officials had been consulted in many locations that charge the denunciation of vending zones without their knowledge.

"Still not void a question," K. Jayaraman, a civic official, said a civic official. "The Corporation had identified some places on the town-vending committees, reviewed by civic officials. However, these zones do not exist in our records. We will need to work on this for a few more days in the city.

Cloudy skies

Sky is likely to be generally cloudy. Light to moderate rain or drizzle during some hours during evenings in the city and heavy rain over the coastal districts. The air temperature will be around 38°C in the city and 39°C in the coastal districts.

The committee, however, will need to work on this for a few more days in the city.

Nine-member gang selling ganja to students nabbed

Contraband was delivered in packets to customers, mainly students and IT employees, at bus stops

The Anna Salai police have busted a nine-member gang, including a 24-year-old woman, that has been selling ganja to school and college students in the city for the past four years.

Based on information that ganja was sold to students, a special team, headed by C. Chandramohan, Anna Salai police inspector, increased surveillance across the city. They found that Singaraj, 32, from Madurai, had taken a room on rent in Adyar and was selling ganja to students in packets.

The police team nabbed him and during interrogation, he revealed that he had over 1,400 customers, mainly students and IT employees across the city. He received the supply from one Pandi of Madanapalli, Priya Lalakumari, Sivakumar and Subramani of Tirunelveli. He used to pack the contraband in small sealed packets in his room prior to distribution.

No motorcycles

He used to ask his custom­ers to wait at the bus stop and would then deliver the packets there. He never used motorcycles, fearing that his image may get captured on CCTV camera. This way, he managed to escape for the last four years, said C. Chandramohan.

Based on information pro­vided by him, the police ar­rested Pandi, Subramani, Priya Lalakumari, and few asso­ciates. “Students can pass on information to the police about people selling ganja in their locality. We will take ac­tion against them,” said the inspector.

Man attacked

Meanwhile, a 43-year-old man who was on his way back from work was attacked by a few men who were smoking ganja in Sembiona Gar­ga in Tiruttani on Saturday.

The police team nabbed two of the accused, who are yet to be arrested.

Arappor Iyakham holds candlelight vigil for Subash

Tamil Nadu is being systematically punished

Tamil Nadu is being systematically punished

Sriram Balaji

The death of Subash, a young techie, in an accident caused by foreign vehicles has sparked widespread outrage against the Tamil Nadu government, which has been criticized for its failure to take effective action against traffic violations.

Subash, a 26-year-old techie, was killed on Sunday night when a foreign vehicle hit his motorcycle on a highway near Thiruvananthapuram in Kerala. The accident occurred on the Madurai-Chennai highway, and the victim was identified as Subash, who was on his way to a friend’s house.

The state government has ordered a thorough investigation into the incident and has promised strict action against the responsible parties. The family of the deceased has alleged that the state government has been neglecting the problem of traffic violations and accidents.

The death of Subash has reignited the debate on road safety in Tamil Nadu, and the state government has been accused of failing to take adequate measures to prevent such incidents. The families of the victims have also condemned the state government for its inaction and have called for stricter enforcement of traffic rules.

The issue has also sparked a wider debate on road safety and the need for a comprehensive road safety strategy. The state government has been under pressure to take immediate action to ensure the safety of its citizens and to prevent such incidents from recurring.

DMK opposes release of Hind-Totval

The DMK, which is in power in Tamil Nadu, has opposed the release of the film Hind-Totval, starring M.K. Stalin, which is scheduled to release on October 7.

The party has alleged that the film is being released to create confusion among the public and to distract them from the government’s failures.

The DMK has also stated that the release of the film is not in the best interest of the country, and it is likely to create further unrest among the public.

Arappor Iyakham holds candlelight vigil for Subash

Volunteers of Arappor Iyakham, a citizenry movement, held a candlelight vigil for Subash on Monday evening.

The vigil took place in Chennai, and it was organized to remember Subash’s death and to raise awareness about the issue of traffic safety in Tamil Nadu.

The volunteers of Arappor Iyakham have been conducting such vigils since the death of Subash, and they have been urging the state government to take immediate action to prevent such incidents from happening again.

'Common exam will adversely affect poor'

DMK President M.K. Stalin has expressed concern about the effects of a common examination for students in the state.

Stalin has said that a common examination would not only affect the poor students but also the state government and the students.

The common examination would lead to a situation where the poor students would have to study for two different exams, and this would put an additional burden on them.

Stalin has also said that the common examination would also lead to a situation where the poor students would have to pay a lot of money to get coaching for the two exams, which would put an additional burden on them.

Kerala CM joins chorus of protest against Home Minister’s push for Hindi

Conspiracy by Sangh Parivar to create more divisions: Pinarayi

The Chief Minister said the Sangh Parivar was attempting to manoeuvre the national language to divide public opinion from critical issues that plague the nation. He said he was seeing a conspiracy by the Sangh Parivar to open a new front in the name of the language to push more schisms within society. The Union Minister’s statement could unsettle the nation, he said.

Pinarayi said, Mr. Vijayan said Mr. Shah had widely canvassed language divisions to divert public attention from critical issues that plague the nation.

Embrace diversity: Siddaramaiah

One language not possible, says Jaram Ramesh

As a Union Home Minister’s statement appeared to envisage unity through Hindi, Mr. Ramesh, who is so fond of multilingualism, conveyed a different message to the people. He said the Sangh Parivar was trying to divide the country by impressing upon people that all languages spoken in India were national languages. The Constitution did not call Hindi a national language, but placed it as a responsible tongue to the country to develop and function as an official language.

In a stinging Facebook post, Mr. Ramesh said he was seeing a conspiracy by the Sangh Parivar to open a new front in the name of the language to push more schisms within society. The Union Minister’s statement could unsettle the nation, he said.

Mr. Ramesh was speaking on the founder’s day celebrations at the Federation of Karnataka Chambers of Commerce and Industry, in his native village Siddaramaiah on Sunday.

BJP leaders defend Mr. Shah’s statement

Among the BJP leaders, who have揑uted into the controversy, is Mr. Shah’s statement. Law Minister Ravi Shankar Prasad, while Mr. Ramesh thinks Hindi should be made the official language of the country, Mr. Shah wants it to be adopted as the mother tongue.

Mr. Prasad sees Mr. Shah’s words as an attack on other tongues. Moreover, the Constitution envisaged a republic that respected and upheld linguistic diversity, he said.

Mr. Prasad said the Constitution did not make any language as the national language and said “unity through Hindi language” was wrong to impose it arbitrarily on people who spoke other tongues. Moreover, the Constitution envisaged a republic that respected and upheld linguistic diversity, he said.

Boat tragedy exposes serious safety lapses

Many private parties ply without licence, fitness certificate

B. Soujanya, a tourist, said B. Soujanya, said police should conduct raids on boats operating in the Godavari and Krishna rivers claiming up to 200 boats operate in tourist spots. However, unconfirmed reports say that over 200 boats operate in some tourist places without licence and fitness certificate.

After the boat tragedy in the Krishna in 2017, the then TDP government constituted a committee to study the licensing system for boats in the river. However, only a few possess fitness certificates as per the Public Crimes and Ferry Act, 1980.

Permission should be given only after verifying the hull breadth and beam, length and breadth, and other specifications. Many private owners are not ready to follow the rules as they don’t think Hindi will be imposed on us. We are not prepared to tolerate the attack on Karnataka,” other BJP leaders said to deepen the statement.

Why Indias growth figures are of the mark

The over-reliance on the organised sector for official data is costing a gross misdescription

From the editorial, “The data are much more robust when you compare the growth rates of the unorganised and the formal sectors. The reality is that the unorganised sector contributes around 60% of the national income. Moreover, the unorganised sector is a major source of employment. Yet, this sector is largely invisible in the official statistics. The government data on growth and employment are based only on the organised sector. This is a clear case of data manipulation.”

DATA POINT

Corporate fault lines

The cumulative revenue growth of 46 companies in the corporate sector dropped to 17%, an angelic leap, if it is to be believed. This growth is expected to fall to 6% by 2022, despite increased capital investment in the sector.

1. The corporate sector has not only reduced its exposure to any capital but also its exposure to the end meet.
2. The sector's growth is expected to fall to 6% by 2022, despite increased capital investment in the sector. The expected growth rate of 17% is expected to fall to 6% by 2022.

Perhaps the most abiding image of the launch of the Chandrayaan-2 mission, which came tantalisingly close to perfecting the Vikram lander, must be a soft landing on the lunar surface. President Ram Nath Kovind, who was present at the Centre for Aerospace Technology and Applications in Thrissur, Kerala, termed the achievement the highest milestone in India's space programme.

President Kovind, in his address, said, "It is a matter of pride to the nation that we have achieved this feat in our space programme. It is a matter of pride that we have achieved this in our space programme."

Unfortunately, the soft landing of the Vikram lander, which was expected to set foot on the moon's surface, failed. The lander was supposed to deliver the Pragyan rover, a mini-rover, onto the lunar surface.

"The Vikram lander had been designed and manufactured by ISRO and the Pragyan rover was also a joint venture between ISRO and DRDO," said Mr. K. Srinivasan, chief scientist, ISRO.

8, dead 3 missing as boat capsized in Godavari

While some of the rescue teams have been withdrawn from Godavari, officials of the Maharashtra disaster response forces and Press Trust of India are searching for survivors through the use of drones.

An Oil and Natural Gas Corporation (ONGC) helicopter has also been pressed into service to help in rescue operations. The teams will be joined early on Monday by two Navy aircraft.

Navy deploys aircraft

The Navy has deployed a large aircraft and choppers to assist in the rescue operations.

The successful rescue operations would also be deployed to Disney Channel on Monday, according to an official.

Likely to conclude logistics support and maritime cooperation pacts during Rajnath visit

NEW DELHI (PTI) - Seeking to "woo back tourism" to Jammu and Kashmir, Tourism Department on Sunday proposed the launch of "express trains" exclusively for the tourists visiting the Union territory from Delhi and Amritsar.

The bifurcation of the Union Territory into Jammu and Kashmir and Ladakh -- resulted in the closure of tourist operations in the valley.

"It has been decided to run the express trains, exclusively for the tourists visiting the Union territory from Delhi and Amritsar," Tourism Department's Deputy Director Suvojit Bagchi said.

"With more engagement, more tourists will come back on track," he said.

Pankaj Advani, India's poster boy, once again did what he does best - host a Worldfinal. On Sunday, Advani defeated Nay Thaw Oo in the 150+ format at the 2019 World billiards championship in Germany to defend his post of last year – his second title in the last six years. Advani was in full flow from the start and, with Planet of Blues 80 and 80 in the first two frames, which included a century, he looked unstoppable. He scored his third century in the seventh frame, the second against this opponent, to close out the match. "I feel more confident and played more strongly against last year. No mistake this time. After all, I was at ease when I scored my first ball and won it from the start, and he seemed to be in charge of the match until he moved well and missed," said Advani, who now boasts of five World titles in his sport than anyone else, added "every title is fighting his own battle. ‘More than external factors play and the like where your opponent pins you down, it is your play and how you perform,’ said Advani, who now boasts of five World titles in his sport than anyone else, added “every title is fighting his own battle. It is your play and how you perform.”

Bring the Ranji Trophy home

It is the only thing that we have not got to see for a long time, says Srinivasan

BHAVANISANKAR

The team has been trying hard for the last two weeks. This time around, former ICC manager N. Venkatapathy asked the players to bring the trophy home.

"In my little career that I have played, I have lost my sport, I have never lost. And, I have great expectations from you this time. The time is ripe and I want you to think and bring the trophy home as it is the only thing that we have not got to see for a long time," he told the Tamil Nadu players during the inauguration of the CDCA-Sramakalyan Environment Trust ground and pavilion on Sunday.

Venkatapathy must burn in each one of you. We have failed in the West Indies, we have won the Test series, but we have still not got to see the MBE in our country. There is so much of competition in India. A player who has not got even that to lose the Tour of the Americas because he is second in a tournament, that's what we need.

"Only three players have got to taste victory in the last two years, we want to consolidate the same and start thinking of a World Cup. You are all starting as the best and to make it as the No. 1 team in the world, you must succeed in the own trophy," he added.

"I am glad now that we have achieved what we planned during those two years. From now on there are many people working behind the development of the team." Venkatapathy, who is one of the best in the history of the country, also met Ranji stars N. Jagdishan and K. Padmanabhan after the inauguration of the CDCA-Sramakalyan Environment Trust ground.
